Advantages:

Vista Voyage - Your Journey, Their Expertise.

They're the squad that keeps a watchful eye on every twist and turn in the travel universe.

From flight rule acrobatics to visa rule gymnastics, they're here to ensure you don't pay a king's ransom for your adventures.

Their destination knowledge is the compass that guarantees a hassle-free trip through every twist and turn.

Disadvantages:

There's also a Problems Report and Solutions monitor where you can see what problems Vista has encountered, and then go online to find possible solutions.

And, have you ever noticed how Windows computers get slower with age? That's because files get separated from each other on your hard drive and require occasional defragmentation.

Most of us never do it, in part because it uses too many system resources. In Vista, the process is automatic and runs in the background, so you won't even notice it.

Conclusion:

Travellers continue to seek authentic experiences. The tools they use to research and book these experiences are constantly changing due to innovations in technology. Destinations are also challenged by limited financial resources and strong competition for tourist dollars from other iconic and even lesser known locations. The personalisation of travel suggests that independent travel will have a stronger presence than group travel, however, we must always consider the type of traveller. The travel services sector is being forced to innovate at a startling rate.
